New Zealand-Democratic People's Republic of Korea Society

We've received the sad news that the earthquake in Christchurch on February 22 caused hearth-rendering losses of 75 lives and considerable material damages.

We, the Korea-New Zealand Friendship Society, would like to extend our deepest sympathy and condolence to you , and particularly to the victims and bereaved families through you.

At the same time, we sincerely wish friendly New Zealand people to repair damages at an early date and recover stable lives as soon as possible.

On this opportunity, we would like to reassure that we will try utmost to strenghten friendly bonds with New Zealand people and further promote mutual understand in the future as we did in the past.

With best regards,

Korea-New Zealand Friendship Society
